

Ending hunger, empowering individuals and growing community.

2019 Box of Hope Subscriptions Now Available

Plant seeds of hope thru community supported agriculture and provide wholesome, fresh vegetables for those who struggle with food insecurity.

Each growing season, DeKalb County Community Gardens (DCCG) grows and distributes thousands of pounds of fresh produce for local individuals and families in need. Box of Hope subscribers provide revenue which goes to support DCCG's efforts to provide food in DeKalb County.

Our Box of Hope program is comprised of several components. DCCG trains individuals with developmental disabilities in the horticultural and agricultural fields at our Walnut Grove Vocational Farm (WGVF) located in Kirkland. The farm is where WGVF program participants grow, prepare and package our veggies for the Box of Hope program.

WGVF program participants learn skills that will help them gain experience for employment and ensure a productive place for young adults with disabilities in our community.

Help support the work of DCCG by donating a Box of Hope for a local individual or family in need or purchasing one for you and your family.

It's easy to start your Box of Hope subscription!

Step 1: Subscribe for the 2019 growing season—June 3 to October 18—a total of 20 weeks or a portion of the season.

Box of Hope subscribers pay for their selected subscription options at the start of the season to help cover growing start-up costs. In return, subscribers receive a beautiful and delicious box of vegetables on a regular basis (per selected subscription option).

Note: Box of Hope subscribers assume the risks of each growing season such as drought, too much rain, unanticipated insect pressure, etc. However, DCCG carefully plans a diverse portfolio of crop varieties to ensure a plentiful harvest, even when Mother Nature doesn't cooperate.

Subscribers can pick up Boxes of Hope at: 1) Walnut Grove Vocational Farm (Kirkland) on Thursdays or at DeKalb and Sycamore locations on Tuesdays, or 2) arrange for Friday home delivery (additional charge).

Step 2: Simply complete the attached subscription order form and send it along with payment to: DCCG, PO Box 348, DeKalb IL 60115 or go to www.dekalbgardens.org and click the Shop button (top right of the page). Questions? Call us at 815.793.0950.
